The National Service-Learning Clearinghouse, a program of Learn and Serve America, provides timely information and relevant resources to support service-learning programs and practitioners. The NSLC supports the service-learning community in higher education, kindergarten through grade twelve, community-based initiatives and tribal programs, as well as all others interested in strengthening schools and communities using service-learning techniques and methodologies. Visit us today at www.servicelearning.org for assistance with materials, reference, referrals and information. Use this Access Guide for quick reference to electronic and print resources on our website.

Site-wide Search

Type your keyword(s) into the search box on the upper right side of any page on the NSLC website to find resources targeted to your needs. Search on any topic, such as “reflection,” “assessment,” or “tutoring.” Search results will include articles, links, library items, and events.
